NORTHVIEW EDUCATION FOUNDATION

“PHIL DEBOER COMMUNITY SERVICE SCHOLARSHIP”

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

Phil DeBoer was actively involved in the Northview School District. Particularly he served on the NEF board as a trustee and then as President for 2 years. As a parent of 2 Northview graduates, Phil gave a lot of his time in volunteering at sporting events, fundraisers and just being a part of life at Northview. Phil was also involved in many other community projects in Grand Rapids. Serving his community was very important to him and in his life time, he made a difference in many lives. Phil passed away unexpectantly in July 2019. This scholarship is to honor his commitment to serving the community.

The Northview Education Foundation’s primary purpose of this scholarship is to assist Northview High School seniors, in their continuing education, who has demonstrated a desire to serve their community such as the one Phil DeBoer did.
